I'm glad I'M back at dear old Kanawana
With her trees so stately and so fair.
Let me lie and rest beneth their shadows,
And forget my troubles and my care.
For I love her valleys and her mountains,
Rocks and trees bring messages to me.
Telling me there's one place, Kanawana,
Where my tired soul can e'er be free.

Max Ford- 1932.

Hereit is hot from the Press. The second issue of the Green Triangle. The Editorial staff wish to thank those who have contributed articles to the paper, and we hope that in the future this group will be larger. We also wish to take this opportunity of expressing our regrets in loosing two fine members of our staff, Mr.Buckley, Junior Director for the month of July and Dr.Courville, and two leaders, Alex Ross and Scotty Kiell. While sorry to see these friends depart we also wish to welcome Mr.McDermit, Dr.Colblazer and several Leaders. In closing we may ask the campers to make a bigger effort next week to have the next issue the largest and the best publication of the Green Triangle.

-@-@-@-@-@-@-@-@-@-@-@-@-@-@-@-@-@-@-@-

The past week has been one of tournaments, the major sports included,being ping-pong fencing and horshoe pitching. Shan Dunn was crowned champion of ping-pong by defeating Doc. Courville in a wirlwind finish, spurred on by the cheering Seniors. This tournament was open to the camp and among the prominent contestants was the "Chief" himself, who was however stopped by the "Doc".

There were 8 entrants for the fencing tournament and by the process of elimination. Jack Smithman proved himself supremein the wielding of sabres.

The horse-shoe pitching tournament was still in progress at the time of going to press.

The other principal sport activities apart from hiking,have been the usual games of lacrosse,baseball,waterbaseball and a medley relay race.

Senior Over-Night Hike

The seniors,after practising eating grasshoppers up on the back trail,set out on their two day hike,led Bill Bourne.At noon,having walked all the way over to Mille Isles,they ate their dinner in plain sight of Lone Pine Hill.The reason for walking in this circle was explained when Bill left his carefully carved stick outside a farmhouse,in which lived a beautiful farmer's daughter.This young lady,not to be outdone,took the valued article and held it until his return,when she smilingly presented it to him.

Evening found the seniors, about six miles, from St.Jerome, cooking their supper in the rain. At nine P.M. they abandoned all the rules for overninght hikes and retreated to a barn where they tried vainly to get some sleep. About 10.30, however, some of them decided to hunt mice for excitement. The only outcome of this was the entrance of three scouts, soaking wet and very much fatiqued.

Three oclock saw a cock on the job, followed directly by an orchestra of pigs, dogs and cows. Our stout hikers turned out at about six A.M. and by noon were entering Marois very tired and very hot. They got home for general swim which was enjoyedby all.

JUNENILE ACTIVITIES.

JUVENILE HIKE TO MORIN-HIGHTS

Leaving camp ten A.M. Tuesday, the group took the trail to Becis were they got the trail to Morin Hights. The bunch had a swim at Lake Echo, and arrived in Morin Hights at five oclock.

A Splendid Camp site was obtained just outside Morin Hights. The first evening was spent in touring the village. A rumor of a bear supposed to be in the vicinity caused the campers to have a sleepless night. Like all green-horns they rose at the early hour of four A.M. The next day was spent in Horse back riding, and a game of base-Ball, when the hikers defeated the Morin Hights all stars by a large margin. In the evening they enjoyed a moving picture show, filmed about 1900 and which broke about every five minutes. After a good night's rest they returned to Camp by Christieville and St:Sauveur. Owing to trouble caused by the Wednesday hikers the overninght bunch were refused to swim in St:Sauveur. The hikers arrived back in Camp in time for General Swim.

TOOTH PASTE LEAGUE BEGINS TO RUN OUT END DRAWS NEAR.

At the time of going to press there are three teams left in the league to fight for the championship,namely Minty's,Forhan's and Pepsodant's.

It has been an exciting race and as the race ends this afternoon we shall try to publish the results this evening.

JUNIOR ACTIVITIES.

Junior Hike to Camp Otoreke.

The first Junior Camp hike of the season left on Tuesday morning for Camp Otoreke the Senior Y.M.C.A. camp.Taking the short cut to Becsis and Lake Echo they arrived in Morin Heights in time for dinner.The walk to St.Adolphe was uneventful but tiring as there was a three mile stretch of hills to be climbed.On arriving we found Camp Otoreke playing baseball against Camp Kinkora.As the weather turned out to be cloudy and rain threatened,we were given a tent to sleep in.After a swim and supper,the crowd left for the village,returning at nine thirty.The writer was lulled to sleep by a chorus from the boys,two snoring,two talking in their sleep and an occassional wallop from Abbie Gerringer as he fought his battles in his sleep.Wednesday was cloudy,with occassional rain,That morning was spent in swimming,boating and two boys were fortunate enough to get a motor boat ride.The start back was made at four fifteen,and we made very good time to Morin Heights,where camp was made for the night. The local movie house claimed most of the boys in the evening.Little sleep was had until after one o'clock,as it was cold and the ground hard.Thursday morning a few of our members went horseback riding.Leaving at eleven forty-five,the trip was made back to camp.with a stop for dinner half way to Lake Becsis.

Sports

Stan Egar and Walt.Jeffers were the mechanics who successfully brought their motorcycle to the finishing line to win the motorcycle league.

Thus while the Harley Davidsons spurted ahead of the Hendersons to come in first the Indians narrowly missed a terrible broadside into the fence and came home just ahead of the Super X.This was an exciting reliability tour and we are sure that both new and old campers in this section can look forward to other such events.in the weeks to come.

A good game of Pirates and Swiss Navy took place on Thursday afternoon under the able direction of Ed Baylis. THE SWISS WAS under the leadership of George Brugman went to visit "Davy Jones Locker".as the pirates, captained by "Poker-Faced Jack" destroyed four boats while the Swiss Navy only sank one.

The leaders and some of the officers of the Swiss Navy were made to walk the plank,along with "Poker-Faced Jack" who went over just for the hang of it.

-Solo Efforts Feature Thursday Night's Camp Fire-

To replace the usual council ring program,the Senior Camp acted as hosts to the remainder of the camp on Thursday night.

After the majority had settled comfortably back on the green sward and benches, the Chief opened the proceedings with the demonstration of fire-lighting in the newly constructed Senior fire place.

Community singing was led by the Chief and assissted by Wilf Buckley.The singing of "Under the Spreading Chestnut Tree" afforded some of the more absent minded campers an opportunity to entertain the audience with some well chosen solo efforts.Dry weather was forecasted at least twice.

This was followed by some splendid shadow boxing by Juvenile and Junior campers, to the amusement of the spectators.The most strenuous part of the program concluded with a Senior "Cock Fight"

Then came the mail,high lighted by five letters for Jim Carnegie and other interesting parcels for some of the boys.

The evening was closed with "Abide With Me" splendidly sung by Alan Carrie accompanied on the larynx of George Brugman.

SATURDAY NIGHT SHOW.

At our last Saturday Saturnalia there was featured a new form of entertainment for Kamp Kanawana,in the presentation of the premier performance by the members of the Dramatic group of the melodrama in one act by Lord Dunsarry the noted Irish playwright,"A Night at an Inn",it proved a rather interesting production and we are looking forward with anticipation to their second production at the end of August.Alan Carrie gave a very fine rendering in his excellent soprano voice of "Granny's Highland Home,"which received from the audience the first courteous attention they have given to any musical offering this season.The much heralded beauty contest fizzled out in a complete failure in spite of the presence of such able judges as,Chef Watson,Bob Kneeland,Bob Gibson,Mitchell Mills and a few leaders who had confidence in their charm and youthful beauty.

The evening was notable for the first appearance of our camp newspaper,"The Green Triangle",readnto the audience by Jack Millar's melodious baritone voice. The old team of Keill and Clarke gave the second selection in their scenes of operatic gems.The bull fight scene from Carmine.This was Scotty's last appearance on our stage,this year and we are sure our audiencews will miss his clever comedy which they seem to have highly appreciated in the past.The evening closed with the second episode of them demon defectives,Snopp and Peep,which was marred only by the lack of volume in our receiving set.This we hope will be remedied by the new broadcasting system in effect this week.

NOTICE.

Snoop and Peep have investigated about the dishes put through the little window and find little wrong with them,if the man at the little window would be more careful how he gives us our porridge and coffee.It would be better for us if he put it inside the utensils,not outside.Therefore we have engaged the services of Snoop and Peep again to watch him more closely in the future.

-Dorothy-Dix 's Advice

Dear Miss Dix:
What can I do to prevent Doug. Clarke from chasing around after the girls. This caused me quite a lot of distress, as I do not think it sets a good example for the nice boys in tent four. What, Oh, what can I do. Please tell me.
Yours respectfully Reg. Kelly.

Dear Mr. Kelly:
There is nothing you can do. He is just naturally a"Woman's Home Companion"
Dot Dix.

Dorothy Old Gal:
What can you do with a girl who simply won't get out of the truck and walk even after being kissed,
Yours
Jack Cameron.

Dear Jack:
My Brother wants to know her address, he will handle this case for you.

Dear Miss Dix.
Who is Flaherty?
Yours Perplexelly
Chief Spearman.

Dear Chief:
Ask Mike McNaughton, Doug, Clarke; Ralph Allen; or Tommy Cornell.
Dorothy Dix.

Dear Miss Dix.
Does a young girl who has never been kissed before enjoy her first experience ,
Yours Frank Clarke.

Dear Frank
I am sorry, but I forget.
